DR. SCUDDER BACK FOR BIG WINTER CAMPAIGN

For parts of several weeks, Dr. Doremus Scudder has been staying on Tantalus with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Rowe and Charles Carter, giving all his time to preparation for the fall and winter campaign in Central Union church. He returned to the city Monday afternoon and will have charge of the mid-week service in the parish house this evening. The topic will be "A Summons to a Prince." At the close of the service the standing committee will hold an important meeting. Central Union is planning an unusually aggressive and interesting campaign, details of which will soon be made public. There is a remarkable spirit of activity in all the organizations of the church.

GIGNOUX IS EXPECTED HOME ON OCTOBER 6

Reports of several minor accidents from both the Honolulu Rapid Transit & Land Company and the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company were read at the meeting of the public utilities commission yesterday. The reports were received and placed on file in the usual manner.

A total of $37.05 in receipts from utilities corporations was announced by P. M. McMahon, acting secretary. Chairman Charles R. Forbes announced that Commissioner A. J. Gignoux will return from the coast on or about October 3. Commissioner Williams intends to sail for the states on October 6 or 9.

The German Socialist leaders, Westkamp and Echel, were arrested at Dusseldorf and sentenced to three months' imprisonment each for distributing literature hostile to German interests.

Sheridan Ladd, for 15 years chief electrician for the Bridgeport police department, and who recently resigned, was found dead in an abandoned quarry in the city's outskirts. Near the body was a bottle which had contained poison.
